Dr. Stephanie Reinhart

Stephanie Reinhart is founding partner of the law firm REINHART Rechtsanwaelte (Partnership with limited professional liability). She studied law and received her doctorate in law from the University of Regensburg. Afterwards she worked as a trainee lawyer in a law firm specializing in commercial law in San Francisco, USA.

Stephanie Reinhart provides comprehensive legal advice to our clients in matters of food law, cosmetic law and feed law. The focus of the activities is on delimitation issues, questions of product labelling as well as the advertising of food supplements, cosmetic products and animal feed.

Stephanie Reinhart advises from product development to market maturity and represents our clients in and out of court against competitors and authorities. In addition, she consults on issues relating to the drafting of contracts such as manufacturing and product development agreements as well as on issues relating to online trading.

From January to December 2016, Stephanie Reinhart worked for the law firm meyer.rechtsanwälte Partnership, which is specialized in food law. Due to her many years of work for a major publishing company as well as her PhD thesis on a tax law topic, she brings with her a sound understanding of economic contexts.

The professional expertise of Stephanie Reinhart is proven by scientific publications. Furthermore, she is member of the Working Group on Food Supplements of the German Food Association (AK NEM) and the European Food Law Association (EFLA).

Stephanie Reinhart advises in German and English.
